Learning to rewrite your future

WHY OUR NAME? Actions - and results - from training are more likely if stakeholders and learners are involved in the learning design.

Value from Innovative Training & Facilitation

Adriano Pianesi's small business creates results-based training in Leadership, Train-the-trainer, Communication, and IT Systems. His training goes from PowerPoint to POWERFUL with a unique focus on interactivity and creative uses of technology. In addition, ParticipAction's facilitation services unleash the power of strategic dialogue in your organization.
